An act to add Section 101.2 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to professions and vocations.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 975, as amended, Wright. Professions and vocations: regulatory authority.

Existing law, the Business and Professions Code, provides for the licensure and regulation of various professions and vocations by boards, bureaus, and commissions within the Department of Consumer Affairs. Under existing law, a city or county shall not prohibit a person or group of persons, authorized by one of these boards, bureaus, or commissions, as specified, to engage in a particular business from engaging in that business, and shall not prohibit a healing arts professional licensed by one of those boards from engaging in any act or performing any procedure that falls within the professionally recognized scope of practice of that licensee.

This bill would provide that those boards, bureaus, and commissions have the sole and exclusive authority ~~in state government~~ to license and regulate the practice of professions and vocations regulated by those boards pursuant to provisions of that code, and that no licensing requirements, as specified, shall be imposed upon a person licensed to practice one of those professions or vocations other than under that code or by regulation promulgated by the applicable board through its authority granted under that code. The bill would prohibit a city, county, city and county, school district, other special district, a local or regional agency, or joint powers agency from imposing a licensing requirement upon a person licensed to practice a profession or vocation regulated by one of these boards. The bill would state findings and declarations of the Legislature.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1     SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares the following:
2     (a) The State of California, State and Consumer Services
3     Agency, contains the Department of Consumer Affairs, which 4     contains approximately 38 boards, bureaus, and commissions the
5     mission of which is to regulate specified professions and vocations.
6     In addition to those boards, bureaus, and commissions, the state
7     government also is comprised of dozens of other state agencies,
8     departments, boards, bureaus, and commissions.
9     (b) California local government is comprised of 58 counties,
10    approximately 470 cities, and over 2,000 special districts, local
11    and regional agencies, and joint powers agencies.
12    (c) If other state governmental entities or local governmental
13    entities were to require persons licensed to practice a profession
14    or vocation by a board, bureau, or commission within the 15    Department of Consumer Affairs to satisfy additional licensing
16    requirements in order to practice their professions or vocations,
17    before or within the respective governmental entity, this would 18    impose enormous regulatory burdens upon those persons.
19    (d) The practice of adopting continuing education requirements
20    through regulatory action, and the imposition of mandatory
21    training programs to satisfy requirements for licensure,
22    certification, or registration, is becoming more prevalent with 23    each passing year as authority is shifted from direct legislative
24    action to increasingly broad, yet undefined, regulatory mandates.
25    (e) The imposition of educational and training requirements by 26    these governmental entities, in addition to state licensing
27    requirements, inhibits the practice of those professions within or 28    before those governmental entities.
29    (f) Further, as additional licensing requirements are imposed,
30    it is becoming difficult and impractical for the state and local

1 governmental entities to administer conflicting and diverse
2 requirements, resulting in greater confusion and increased costs.

3 (g) It is therefore imperative that the licensed professions and
4 vocations have a single set of licensing requirements that apply
5 uniformly throughout the state and apply equally in all state and
6 local governmental entities, and that licensed professionals clearly
7 understand the expectations with which they must comply in order
8 to legally operate within their scopes of practice in the state.
